Code of Conduct: HI-Y Family of Programs

HI-Y programs work to build responsible life-long good citizens of character who work to build better homes, schools and communities for all.

Participation in all parts of a HI-Y program shall be maintained on an intellectual and productive level. A level of conduct is expected of all participants (youth, advisor and staff) that requires self-control, individual decision-making, responsibility and adherence to a dress code that is appropriate to each HI-Y program.

Responsible HI-Y conduct must be the concern of each participant for the responsibilities and rights of every individual and that of the group. Being responsible for one's own behavior at all times is a necessary part of self-government. It is essential that all students, advisors and staff act responsibly to ensure that their own conduct and attitude are beneficial not only to themselves and all other participants but also to ensure the continuation of the HI-Y program. By choosing to participate, it is expected that each individual has read, understands and agrees to follow the Code of Conduct while attending any conference sponsored by the HI-Y Leadership Center.

All participants share equally the responsibility for their actions when violations of the Code of Conduct are witnessed. Those who decide to be present when a violation occurs shall by their own choice, be considered a participant in the violation. In this program there are no "innocent bystanders."

Each person must recognize that their failure to carry out the Code of Conduct may lead to their own and perhaps their total delegation's dismissal from the program.

Each person & delegation is to support the purpose & procedures of the HI-Y program they are attending in both spirit, action & work for the success of the program for everyone.

In general, the behavior that is expected can be summarized in these four (4) points:

1) Treat others as one wants to be treated. 2) Do not do anything that hurts another person, place, or thing. 3) Do not do anything that could potentially bring harm to another person, place, or thing. 4) Do not fail to do something that would help others, make the place we are using cleaner, safer and a better experience for all.

More specifically, this Code of Conduct has been developed to identify the type of personal behavior that is consistent with the purpose of HI-Y Leadership Center programs. The items in the Code are based upon performance and are designed to protect everyone involved including the welfare of these programs for future generations. Participation in a HI-Y Leadership Center program indicates personal acceptance of this Code of Conduct.

Individuals, delegations and Advisors are to carry out the Code. Where necessary, HI-Y Leadership Center Staff will assist and reserve the right (discretion) for the "final say" as these programs are HI-Y Leadership Center programs.

We, the participants, advisors and staff taking part in HI-Y Leadership Center programs are to uphold the following CODE OF CONDUCT.

- 1. Each participant shall conduct themselves in an orderly and responsible manner in transit to and from, and during all functions of HI-Y Leadership Center programs. Personal behavior reflects upon the quality of the program, one's delegation, the HI-Y Leadership Center, school and one's self. Participants are expected to conform to this Code of Conduct on the honor system. (Discretion of HI-Y Staff) and possibly (position or privileges) or (Call parents to send home) and/or (Notify school officials).

Cancellations and Refund Policy

The best laid plans can go awry. However, since all our program fees are set below our actual costs, we have no flexibility to provide refunds. Therefore, our policy is NOT to provide refunds for the Participation Agreement or the Final Fee. Actually the person cancelling should reimburse the program for the costs the program has incurred on their behalf by paying the scholarship received back to the program. The program does permit delegations to send a replacement. Please note and add –

- 1. Delegations who want to provide refunds need to set aside money to provide refunds to their students.
- 2. Delegations don't refer parents to the HI-Y Office with billing/refund questions. Handle these locally.
- 3. After a delegation is registered, it is responsible for the entire payment for that number of student/ adult delegates.
- 4. Remember, No Refunds from the HI-Y Leadership Center so do not ask nor have others call to ask.
